2020 Precision Public Health
Academic Symposium

2020. 12.18 (Fri) ~ 19 (Sat)
Online: kulms.korea.ac.kr

This academic symposium is a forum for graduate students in [PPH504] and [PPH505] to showcase their multidisciplinary research conducted as part of their intensive training in Precision Public Health Practicum.

Join us for an inspiring week of poster presentations, and engage in scholarly exchange with members of the school to share research results and to generate new ideas.
